Laurie Deneiko grew up in Young, SK. on his family farm. He and Gwen were high school sweethearts and married in 1985, the same year they bought Model Meats. They celebrated their 38th Anniversary on July 20th. Laurie was a loving father to his two girls, Carlie and Jaz Lin. He was very involved in their lives and proud of their accomplishments. Laurie passed away peacefully on Tuesday, July 25th at the age of 62 surrounded by people he loved. His memories live on through his wife Gwen, and their children Jaz Lin, Carlie and her husband Donovan, his mother, Shirley, his siblings Randy, Bruce and Deborah, Mike and Leanne, Terry and Eileen, Cathy and Don, Carrie and Richard; his nieces and nephews Melanie and Tyler Kraus, Brandon, Amber, TJ, Bailey and Dawson King, Lindsay, Luke, Sofia, Brooklyn and Chloe Boutin, Tanya, Aaron, Myelle and Layla George, Danni, Katie and Isaac Deneiko, Megan, Steven, Elizabeth and Charlotte Langlois, Joshua Cline and Ashley, Cody Schaan and Mikaela, Chyanne Schaan, Levi Schaan and Chelsey; his aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless other family members whose lives he has touched. Laurie is lovingly remembered by his in laws and second family, Gail and Albert Morisey, Allan Morisey and his children; Jordan and Brittny, Kendyl and Kale, and his great niece Hazel, Colleen and Dwayne Palchewich and their children; Erika and Lauren, Hillary and CJ, and Beverly and Keith Palbroda. Laurie will be sadly missed by all his employees and the friends he spent time with. Model Meats will continue to run while the community joins in mourning the loss of a talented, hardworking, businessman. Laurie was predeceased by his father Russel Deneiko in 2014. Laurie's family thank you for attending and invite you for lunch immediately following the service here in the Civic Centre.
